

Policy.

Data and Information Policy.

Purpose and scope

This Policy describes the expectations and requirements for the security, integrity, quality, reliability and availability of TC Energy Data and Information throughout their lifecycle in alignment with applicable legislation and the Company's corporate governance documents to guard against inappropriate access, loss or disposition.

This Policy applies to all TC Energy Personnel and Excluded Contractors.

Policy

1 Ownership of Data and Information

- 1.1 All Data and Information is property of TC Energy and must be used, managed and retained only for Company Business and protected from unauthorized or inappropriate access or use as outlined in the Code of Business Ethics (COBE) Policy, Contractor COBE Policy, Acceptable Use Policy, Artificial Intelligence Policy, Cybersecurity Policy, Inter-Affiliate Codes and Protection of Personal Information Policy.
- 1.2 Personnel and Excluded Contractors must understand how to protect Data and Information classified as:
 - a) Regulated Information or Non-Regulated Information in accordance with the Inter-Affiliate Codes; and
 - b) Personal Information in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Policy.
- 1.3 All Data and Information requires a designated business group-specific owner, who is accountable and responsible for meeting Data and Information requirements in accordance with this Policy, the Data Management Standard and Information Governance Standard.

2 Records management

- 2.1 Personnel and Excluded Contractors must keep accurate Records of their Company Business.
- 2.2 All Records must be stored and managed in the appropriate designated Company storage and retrieval system.
- 2.3 Personnel and Excluded Contractors must ensure that all Records are retained and disposed of in accordance with the Company's Records Retention Schedule, unless a Legal Hold notice applies to the Records in which case the Legal Hold notice is paramount.
- 2.4 Transitory Records should be disposed of as soon as they are no longer required.
- 2.5 The electronic version will be the official Record of retention with the exception of those identified by the Records Retention Schedule. Imaged documents must comply with the minimum requirements outlined in the Information Governance Standard.

Your responsibility

Personnel and Excluded Contractors must follow all applicable provisions and the spirit and intent of this corporate governance document and support others in doing so. Personnel and Excluded Contractors must promptly report any suspected or actual violation of this corporate governance document through available channels so that TC Energy can investigate and address it appropriately. Personnel and Excluded Contractors who violate this corporate governance document or knowingly permit others under their supervision to violate it, may be subject to appropriate corrective action, up to and including termination of employment or contract, as applicable, in accordance with the Company's corporate governance documents, employment practices, contracts, collective bargaining agreements and processes.

Interpretation and administration

The Company has sole discretion to interpret, administer and apply this corporate governance document and to change it at any time to address new or changed legal requirements or business circumstances.

Non-retaliation

TC Energy supports and encourages Personnel and Excluded Contractors to report suspected violations of corporate governance documents, applicable laws, regulations, and authorizations, as well as hazards, potential hazards, incidents involving health and safety or the environment, and near hits. Such reports can be made through available channels. TC Energy takes every report seriously and investigates it to identify facts and, when warranted, makes improvements to our corporate governance documents and practices. All Personnel and Excluded Contractors making reports in good faith will be protected from retaliation, and all Personnel and Excluded Contractors must report if they or someone they know is being or has been retaliated against for reporting. Good Faith Reporting will not protect Personnel and Excluded Contractors who make intentionally false or malicious reports, or who seek to exempt their own negligence or willful misconduct by the act of making a report.
